Raymund Ramirez

Contact Information:
cell: +1 714.313.5142
email: rayramire@gmail.com
portfolio: http://raymundramirez.com/

Education

California State University, Long Beach

Bacherlor's of Fine Arts - Graphic Design
Graduated December 2016

Work Experience

Aspen Medical Products

Graphic Designer I May 2016 - Present

Applies design theory to marketing campaigns to strategize create graphics and design layouts for various print & web applications. Collaborates with the marketing department and support a variety of campaigns with design solutions to promote the brands innovation in spinal braces.

Etekcity

Graphic Design Intern Oct 2014 - Aug 2015

Provided graphic and visual design support for presentation decks, logo creation, newsletters, and internal and external websites. Collaborated with the marketing manager and executive to develop rich, online and print media to elevate the brands ecommerce status.

Sponsored Projects

CSULB Brand Workshop

Project Proposal (January 2016 - May 2016)

Joined forces with a roster of students to conceptualize provide contemporary, creative designs for Profit and Non-Profit partners. The designs included, but were not limited to, corporate identity, web design, package design, and company naming.

The Mekong Club

Project Proposal (February 2016 - March 2016)

Brought the problem of modern day slavery to the attention of the general public in countries across Asia. Created a campaign, centered around an online presence, to promote the issue and urge people to get involved.

Perspective Branding

Project Proposal (November 2015 - December 2015)

Selected a product of choice to propose and design a minimum of three counterparts to a packaging system, by introducing a new idea to the general public. Strengthened the shelf presence by delivering visuals to create an impact.

Oakley

Project Proposal (October 2015 - November 2015)

Pushed Oakley for a new direction in targeting Millinneals and Gen Z for their unique products: Jawbreaker & Sliver. Created a campaign that is centered around the focus audience to stimulate traction for the launch of the new items for their lifestyle and performance brand.